Bank May Occupy New Elks Building

Reported That Crocker National May Establish a Business in Richmond.

There has been many rumors and guesses as to the line of business that would occupy the Tenth street corner store room of the new Elks building. The latest rumor is that a banking institution has leased this fine corner and that the Crocker National Bank will establish a branch in Richmond.

If this proves true, there will be little question as to the future hub and business center of Richmond. Macdonald avenue from one end to the other is destined to be the main business center of Richmond, and property owners on this thoroughfare will never have occasion to worry about values. They are increasing every day of the year in Richmond.

Elect Officers

The band of the Richmond Parlor is one of the best amateur organizations in this part of the state and under the able leadership of W. A. Kinney have made a wonderful improvement in the past year. In order to further the best interests of the band and to keep its present standard of efficiency, officers were elected and a constitution and by laws will be adopted. The new officers are as follows: W. A. Kinney, leader; Henry Mason, secretary and treasurer; Dan Nozighia, band sergeant; W. S. Prout, E. H. Brown and J. F. Woodcock, band trustees.

Formans Get $12,300.

The city council last Monday night "touched up" the tunnel and harbor fund for the sum of $12,300 in favor of James H. and Flossie Forman. The city auditor was authorized to draw his warrant for the above sum upon execution and delivery of proper release approved by the city attorney, relieving the city from any liability on account of grading, etc., of Ashland avenue through the property of the Formans.

George O. and Anna L. Riggs were allowed $2000 from tunnel and harbor fund for portion of lot 12, block N, E. Richmond tract.

Can't Do Without Them.

The Methodist conference at Pacific Grove the past week decided that David Ralston, D. W. Calfee and W. L. Coffman could not be improved upon for their respective positions as pastors of Point Richmond First M. E. church, Ninth Street (Richmond) M. E. church and the Albany M. E. church. The returning of these good pastors to their respective pulpits emphasizes the fact that they are all doing excellent work and fill the bill.

Follett Appointed Chairman.

The mass meeting to be held the coming week in relation to the city acquiring the traction company's interests and operating the street railway as a public utility, will be arranged for by a special committee appointed by Mayor Ludewig. The committee is as follows: G. A. Follett, Attorney D. J. Hall and W. L. Lane.

Eases His Salary.

In speaking of salaries of city officials the other day, an Oakland city official paid a compliment to Richmond's city tax collector, I. E. Marshall. He stated that it was a well known fact that Mr. Marshall did about three times the work required of the Oakland official in the same capacity and that Marshall received one-third less salary than the Oakland man. It is well known that Mr. Marshall is the man for the place, and receives many compliments for efficiency, etc., which get him about as much as the "moral support" does a newspaper.

If Mr. Marshall accepts the remunerative position offered him by one of the Bay City realty firms, the city will lose a valuable employee.

The Terminal is in demand by the working class, for it gives them a square deal.

Berkeley Wants to Annex Naval Base

College Town Casting Shy Glances at Albany—Richmond Is Favorite.

Berkeley is making love to Albany and has the annexation bee in her bonnet. Petitions are being circulated to annex that portion of North Berkeley adjoining the county line east of the Santa Fe railway, which includes Thousand Oaks, Kensington, Northbrae, etc. Albany is not inclined to favor the annexation scheme, her fine waterfront, naval base prospects and other big improvements in sight giving the citizens assurance of a bright future. Albany would much rather join Richmond, and those who are adepts at forecasting coming events, say that this alliance will finally be consummated.

Vestibuled Street Cars.

There seems to be little interest taken by carmen in the vestibule. The climate of the bay cities is not rigid enough to require enclosed cars even in winter. Enclosed cars packed by workmen, with their clothing saturated with dirt and grease, intermixed with garlic and the fumes from strong pipes, require the resistance of a strong physique accompanied by fresh air. Scientists say that the air of an enclosed car often contains millions of bacteria that spread disease.

Fresh air is a valuable asset. No human being can get too much of it. California's climate does not require airtight street cars. The pay as you enter car is hot and stuffy, the pie pan ventilators at the top being a joke. But this type of car takes care of the nickels, notwithstanding tuberculous germs or any "old contagion."

The Terminal is informed that workmen of Richmond will organize a booster club of their own. This will be something new and novel. The workman is the man behind. He can boost, too.

SCHMIDT HAD LONG CAREER OF CRIME

Police Weave Story of His Life From Threads Picked Up Here and There

His Cousin and Alleged Pal, Dr. Muret, Said to Have Figured in Hoch Murder Case

New York—Whether Hans Schmidt, who confessed to having murdered Anna Amiller, will plead guilty and go to the death chair quietly, or whether he will make a determined fight for his life will only be known when he is arraigned. In one breath he says he wishes to go to trial and pay the penalty, and in the next declares he will battle for his liberty.

Since the apprehension of Schmidt not a day has failed to add some details of the man's strange life story. It seems to the police that the whole world is interested. A thread has been picked up here and there, a tangle has been unraveled, and from the warp and woof the narrative of his career in crime has been woven.

The police and court authorities now realize that they have to deal with one of the arch criminals of the age.

Inspector Faurot is not alone in believing that time will brand this as the world's most celebrated murder case. The inspector says that Hans Schmidt has been shown to be one of the brainiest criminals in any land.

If this man had not made one little mistake, and bought a pillow different from any other pillow sold, Faurot declares that Schmidt would have developed into a master, plotting for a band of smaller criminals, launching out and abandoning half way criminality to make himself a factor in the big crimes of the world.

A police report of the career of "Doctor" Ernest A. Muret, companion in crime of Hans Schmidt, which was made public by Inspector Faurot, leads to the belief that Muret and the Dr. Held, who figured in the Johanna Hoch wife murder case in Chicago, are one and the same person.

The police of Hamburg cabled that they have identified as Arthur Heibing the man detained in New York as "Dr. Ernest A. Muret," under suspicion of being concerned with Schmidt in counterfeiting operations. He disappeared from Hamburg in 1909, and warrants for swindling are pending against him, both in Hamburg and Berlin.

Sentences Imposed Under Law Against White Slavery

San Francisco—In connection with the sentencing of Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti for violation of the Mann white slave act, the following list of penalties imposed in the local Federal Courts for violations of the act since it became effective in June, 1910, are of interest. All the cases in this list, except Thomas H. Beaumont, involved commercial traffic in immorality.

Fisher, six months, Alameda county jail; Nathan Dodower, two years six months, McNeill's Island; Charles Cecil, 18 months, McNeill's Island; Ghilo Bonaducci, four months, Alameda county jail; Ito Jagero, four months, Alameda county jail; Thomas H. Beaumont, two years, McNeill's Island; Homer Kaegler, six months, Alameda county jail; Arthur E. Bock, six months, Alameda county jail; Charles Cohen, three months, Alameda county jail; Earl Fullerton, two years, San Quentin; Luigi Vannucci, 11 months, Alameda county jail.

Court Refuses to Enforce Payment of Gambling Debt

San Francisco—A gambler who comes into court seeking to enforce payment of a promissory note given for a gambling debt is attempting to defeat the ends of justice, according to a written opinion handed down by Superior Judge Griffin.

Nat Sparkman, the gambler, is a member of the Waldorf Club, and sued to recover $2500 on a promissory note given by H. F. Berry of the Palace Hotel who refused payment on the ground that it was not binding, because it was given for a gambling debt.

Alligator Pear Weevil Is Menacing California

Washington—The Department of Agriculture has information that a dangerous enemy of avocados, or alligator pears, known as the avocado weevil, exists in Hawaii, Porto Rico, Mexico and other foreign countries.

Owing to the rapid increase of avocado culture in this country, and especially in California, there is danger of introducing this insect through the importation of seed.

A special hearing will be held at the Department of Agriculture November 18, at which will be considered the establishment of a quarantine against avocado seeds and avocado fruits.

Hydroplane as a Torpedo Boat

Venice—Captain Guidon, a naval aviator, made a successful experiment with his invention of a torpedo tube, which is placed between the two floats of a hydroplane. He released a torpedo while flying low and then went up in the air and watched the explosion from a safe distance.

Forests, Pasture Lands and Farms Destroyed by Flames

The following is a summary of the damage caused by forest fires that have been burning for several days in various parts of northern California:

Napa, September 24.—Forest and field fires swept Capell and Foss valleys today and tonight, destroying 24 houses and sweeping orchards and pasture lands. Seventeen families are homeless and are being cared for at local hotels or in private homes in this city. The property loss is estimated at $1,000,000. A territory 20 miles long and five miles wide has been devastated by flames, which have been fanned all day by a north wind blowing 50 miles an hour.

Santa Rosa, September 24.—Last night the fire that earlier in the day nearly destroyed the town of Glen Ellen started again, but Jack London, the novelist, and his cohorts were equal to the occasion and checked it.

Word tonight from Alexander valley stated that the fire was still burning furiously on Black mountain and every available man was in the hills fighting the flames.

"Barbary Coast" of San Francisco is Blotted Out

San Francisco—After six months given to consideration of reform measures introduced by Commissioner Max J. Kuhl, and designed to eliminate the Barbary Coast from San Francisco, the Police Commission, at its regular meeting Monday night, securely clamped down the "lid" on the district by adopting three resolutions that leave no apparent loophole by which resort keepers may evade the issue.

The action of the Police Board was confined entirely to the dance hall, grill and cabaret problem, and did not touch upon the red light question or the segregation of the women of the underworld.

The following is the text of the resolution that wipes out the Barbary Coast:

Resolved, That after September 30, 1913, no dancing shall be permitted in any cafe, restaurant or saloon where liquor is sold, within the district bounded on the north and east by the bay, on the south by Clay street, and on the west by Stockton street.

Further Resolved, That no women patrons or women employees shall be permitted in any saloon in said district.

Further Resolved, That that no license shall hereafter be renewed upon Pacific street, between Kearney and Sansome streets, excepting for a straight saloon.

Women patrons are barred from all saloons in the district, as also women employees.

The final blow to the Barbary Coast is contained in the third clause of the measure, which limits all licenses on Pacific street, between Kearney and Sansome, to those for straight saloons, thus wiping out the objectionable dance halls.

The vote of the Police Board was a sweeping victory for Commissioner Max Kuhl, Father Terence Carahan and the North Beach Promotion Association, which, backed by others desiring the eradication of the many evils presented by the Barbary Coast, for six months fought to bring about the reform.

Further Resolved, That no women patrons or women employees shall be permitted in any saloon in said district.

Further Resolved, That that no license shall hereafter be renewed upon Pacific street, between Kearney and Sansome streets, excepting for a straight saloon.

Women patrons are barred from all saloons in the district, as also women employees.

Pescadero, September 24.—A forest fire threatens to destroy the redwood trees of the coast side, long famed in California history. Supervisor Daniel E. Blackburn wired the federal foresters to come to the assistance of the coast side residents, who are battling strenuously against the flames.

Auburn, September 24.—A fire which started on the 500-acre Graham ranch in Lone Star district Sunday morning is still burning fiercely in a southerly and westerly direction, and has already spread over an area 15 miles long and six miles wide, burning many thousand cords of wood and hundreds of tons of hay.

Santa Cruz, September 24.—The forest fire which raged at intervals today throughout the vicinity and menaced the big double magazines of the Hercules Powder Company in San Lorenzo Canyon appears to be under control tonight. The big trees again were threatened, but fire trails were built and the wind changed suddenly to the opposite direction. The big fire has swept an area four miles long and from one-half to two miles wide.

The vote of the Police Board was a sweeping victory for Commissioner Max Kuhl, Father Terence Carahan and the North Beach Promotion Association, which, backed by others desiring the eradication of the many evils presented by the Barbary Coast, for six months fought to bring about the reform.

Further Resolved, That no women patrons or women employees shall be permitted in any saloon in said district.

Further Resolved, That that no license shall hereafter be renewed upon Pacific street, between Kearney and Sansome streets, excepting for a straight saloon.

Women patrons are barred from all saloons in the district, as also women employees.

The final blow to the Barbary Coast is contained in the third clause of the measure, which limits all licenses on Pacific street, between Kearney and Sansome, to those for straight saloons, thus wiping out the objectionable dance halls.

The work of Tommy Leach is the wonder of the season.

King Cole expects to be back in the big show next season.

Cactus Cravath, Philadelphia, is approaching a home-run record.

Umpire Bill Dinsenz says a player is never at his best until after thirty.

Congo is the new name of Arnold Hauser, the Cardinals' tiny infielder.

Art Shafer is being picked up to do a lot of batting in the coming world's series.

Baltimore expects to get something close to a record for Third Basemen Malsel.

Ty Cobb and Joe Jackson are running neck and neck for the slugging honors.

Manager McGraw declares the Senators will beat out the Naps in the American league.

Old Otto Hess is way down in the averages and is losing his grip as a major leaguer.

The New York Highlanders are trying to land Gilbooley, the bear cat of the Montreal outfield.

The Reds are trying to land Cyril Slapnicka, the crack right hander of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Bill Klem says Chief Wilson of the Pirates is one of the squarest ball players in the game.

Many major league teams have sent scouts to Kewanee to look over a young twirler named House.

Manager George Stallings believes he has the two best finds of the season in Maraville and Myers.

Ivy Wingo, the Cardinals' backstop, in a recent game stole second, third and home after being walked.

Ray Mitchell, the young St. Louis twirler, has been relieved but three times in 20 games for the Browns.

Bill Brennan, the umpire, is a former football star. He used to play fullback on a Minnesota college team.

Pitcher Yingling of the Dodgers is some clouter. National league figures show that he hit for .378 in 21 games.

Fletcher of the Giants is hitting as he did in 1911. He batted over .300 that year, and is batting at that clip now.

George Burns, the Giants' young outfielder, is making the critics sit up and take notice of his sensational work.

Bill Dahlen feels he has been very lucky in getting hold of Pitcher Brown of the Birmingham team for whom $7,000 was paid.

Larry Lajole has been boned four times this season by the New York pitchers. Larry was hit recently twice in one day.

Jack Graney is the steadiest player of the big leagues. His consistent work day after day makes him indispensable to the Naps.

Manager Stallings believes that in Fred Smith he has a future star of brilliance. Smith has been filling in at third base for the Braves.

It is reported that Artie Hofman will try to come back. Reports emanating from New York state that he will join the Highlanders in 1914.

Tom Chivington, president of the American association, is being grilled all over the country for his decision forbidding players to slide into first.

Lavan, the little shortstop of the Browns and former Michigan university star, is a brilliant fielder and is constantly showing improvement at bat.

Griffith is leading the fight against paying high prices for ball players, according to an exchange, but it is recalled he was willing to pay almost any old price for the release for Chick Gandil.

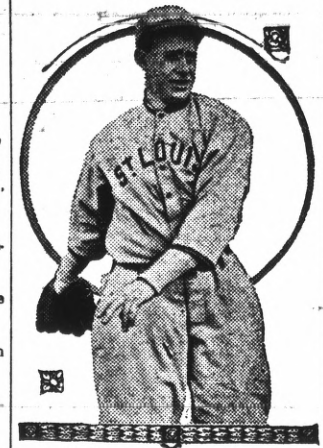

Joe Jackson is a veritable demon with the stick on his home grounds. It is on the road that he slumps, whereas Ty Cobb does his best hitting when the Tigers are away from Detroit.

Jack Knight seems to have at last made good with the Highlanders. The fans abused roundly on the hilltop a season or so back is putting up a spectacular exhibition on first for Chance and rapping the ball hard.

The Birmingham club has made a lot of money selling players this year. Pitcher Elmer Brown has been sold to the Brooklyn club for $7,000. Outfielder Walker has been sold to St. Louis for $4,000 and Pitcher Manning will bring $2,500 from the same club.

The release of Cy Seymour still leaves Boston with the oldest outfielders in the major leagues. Veterans John Titus, Bris Lord and Otis Clymer are practicing like youngsters in the gardens.

"FIND" SEVEN NEW PITCHERS

Pitcher Leverenz of St. Louis.

The 1913 season uncovered seven new pitchers. The Naps and Red Sox are the only teams which failed to profit by 1913's bounty.

The seven finds are Joe Boehling and Joe Engel, Washington; Leslie Bush, Athletics; Rab. Russell, Sox; George Daus, Tigers; Leverenz, Browns; and Ray Keating, Highlanders.

Everett Booe, who was released by the Pittsburgh team to the St. Paul club some weeks ago, has been playing grand ball in the American association.

Manager Frank Chance of the Highlanders denies emphatically the report he would resign as leader of the Yankees at the close of the present season.

Jimmy Callahan would do well to study Griffith's plan in handling his star pitcher. Instead of working Walter Johnson to death, Griff gives him plenty of rest between games.

Many baseball scribes believe the Giants will give the Athletics a tough fight for the world's championship. Many go as far as saying the McGrawites will beat the Philadelphia.

The remarkable improvement of Steve O'Neill behind the bat is the talk of the Nap camp. Last year this catcher was figured as an injury head, but he has surprised them all.

Jack Doyle, the old-time player, who had a brief career as President Lynch's umpire staff, has been named as one of the umpires to accompany the Giants and White Sox on their globe-girding tour.

The Tigers may not win the pennant this season, but they have accomplished something that other American league teams were unable to do. They defeated the Athletics three times in two days.

Oberlin college is constructing a new $60,000 athletic field.

Canadian lawn bowling associations may join hands in one big national governing body.

Chicago amateur baseball clubs, numbering forty, will battle for the city championship.

It is learned that Aug. Belmont has engaged Sam Hildreth to train his American racing stable.

What has become of the man with the long chain of bicycle century bars strung to his anatomy in bygone days?

The Russlans have put up a purse of $12,500 for an international race in September, open to stallions and mares.

Flax Comity, that was a favorite and distanced at Toledo in the first heat, had won five straight races before that.

Ross B. 2:06, is pretty limber this year as he was officially timed in 2:04 1/4 and 2:05 when beaten by Anvil at Cleveland.

Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association races at Lexington from October 6 to 19 will be for purses aggregating $85,000.

Richmond's Industries — Number of Men Employed.

In answer to numerous inquiries as to the number of manufacturing industries in Richmond, the Terminal has published a list for the benefit of its readers and those who may be interested in Richmond's development. Richmond has 34 manufacturing plants, which employ (March 1, 1913) 4365 men, classified as follows:

Standard Oil Co.	2200
Nutman Shores	2000
California Pipe Works	1600
Western Pipe Works	1575
California Wine Association	1650
San Francisco Druggists	1000
Pacific Portland Works	1000
Pacific Sanitary Mfg. Co.	75
Total	4365

Besides the above there are 26 smaller manufacturing industries in Richmond such as brick works, carp and match factories, etc., employing 800 men and women. These figures are conservative and not given for advertising purposes. They are taken from statistics gathered by the Western States Gas & Electric Co., by request of their main headquarters at Chicago.

The assessed valuation of Richmond property is $12,333,322.10. Bonded indebtedness, $500,000, for harbor improvements. Number of building permits for 1912 were 992, value $8,000,000.

TO ADVERTISERS.

There are employed in Richmond 3000 organized workers. This newspaper was the only organ in Richmond that supported union labor in its fight against the open shop on Tuesday, August 19. The Terminal in consequence will continue to prosper and grow, for the workman is a consumer as well as a producer and distributor of his earnings. He naturally will patronize the paper that stands by him in his struggle for better conditions. The Terminal is the workman's friend, and its advertisers will surely reap the benefits of publicity placed in its columns. The Terminal is the oldest newspaper in Richmond, was the first to carry the allied printing trades label at its masthead. Merchants need no instructions in placing their publicity where it will be most effective.

"For the cause that needs assistance,
Against the wrong that needs resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do."

This is a good town. Push it along.

President Wilson's Mexican policy seems to be working out about right—at least part of the fleet will be here for the Portola.

California led all the states in gold production, putting out $20,000,000; Colorado produced $18,731,200 and Alaska third with $17,198,680.

There's a new attorney in town, a fine fellow, originally from Tennessee. The Chicago directory contains 22 pages of his name. Now guess it.

If the single tax will force the idle land into use, it may relieve the congested centers of the surplus of drones who are the direct result of the present system of supply and demand.

Hearst continues to "harass" Bryan, and the latter is receiving more attention and free advertising for his lecture season than he anticipated. In fact, the secretary of state is doing a good business with both "lines."

Mrs. Malcolm D. Whitman, formerly Miss Jennie D. Crocker, whose notable wedding took place at her country home in Hillsborough, is the mother of a $100,000,000 heir, the latter making his first appearance last Sunday at the Fifth Avenue, N. Y., palatial residence.

Secretary Bryan should worry about the adverse criticism in regard to lecturing tours. He says: "No man should enter public life if he objects to criticism, and he cannot stay in public life if he permits criticism to turn him from what he thinks is right. He must decide his duty for himself, and is answerable to the public for his mistakes."

District Attorney A. B. McKenzies after the gumshoe contingent of the Burns detective agency, and has the public with him. The disgraceful treatment given Nelson by the barbarians who were clothed with the (?) authority to sweat, beat and torture him should now be given the "thugs" "detectives" who inflicted the inhuman punishment upon Nelson, just to acquaint them with how the "third degree" feels when applied to their own hides.

The Terminal is in receipt of an illustrated communication regarding the installment of the new city hall on Little Cerrito Hill, which is situated in the southeastern part of the city and commands a magnificent marine view. The drawing was made by a local draftsman, and is a work of art, the four inclines carrying passengers from the base to the summit depicting the future possibilities of Richmond. The municipal building that surmounts the crest of Cerrito is to be 600 feet high and will make Oakland's city hall look like a pigeon house.

"PRIORITY LAW" SUGGESTED.

The present campaign against the saloons of Oakland, Sacramento and other cities, the object being to reduce the number of drinking places, would no doubt work hard ships upon many saloonmen who have their money invested in property and improvements. The "compensation" plan proposed by Mr. Knabbe of the Royal Arch, by cities setting aside a fund for this purpose, is being urged, and some of the commissioners are considering its merits, with a view to reimbursing those saloonmen who may be dispossessed of their property without cause.

It is a question whether the licensing authority can invest permanent property rights in a saloon license. The courts may not recognize the authority of city officials to compensate license holders by diverting funds from municipal treasuries for this purpose.

The priority law or rule that is so satisfactorily applied in the employment and laying off of men, has been suggested. Saloons that have been engaged in the business for years could by virtue of their priority be retained, the new ones being "laid off" first.

POLITICAL AND OTHERWISE.

Tom Johnston is not proclaiming himself from the house-tops. Tom is more of a still hunter. The game is new yet. Tom has made no "official statement" to date.

H. J. Wildgrube's name is mentioned by a number of his friends as an available candidate for district attorney. Mr. Wildgrube stands high in the workingman's estimation as a true advocate of their principles along progressive lines. He comes from the mining districts of Nevada with good credentials.

Attorney C. A. Clark has been mentioned by a number of his friends for the second judgeship, and of course it has got "into the papers." Although the Judge is modest and retiring, he does not deny the soft impeachment. He is a representative citizen and one of the best qualified candidates Richmond could put up.

A. S. Ormsby, assistant district attorney, has got his name "in the papers" also. He is "charged" with having designs upon the office of district attorney. There is lots of time yet to arrange states and make announcements. Mr. Ormsby has numerous friends in Contra Costa county, and "none few" right here in Richmond.

They Went Together.

Tom Meyers was a peddler in a humble way in Chicago, and he and his wife went down to the western quarters. His wagon was old and ragged, his horse had seen years of service in a street car line, and the peddler was old and feeble as his horse, which, by the way, bore the impressive mark of a baron.

Sunday is always a busy day with peddlers and housewives. Saturday Peddler Meyers had an unusually hard day. As he drove home late in the evening he noticed that Baron looked sick. He gave him a good supper of oats, rubbed him down and then went to his own supper.

An hour later he again visited Baron and found him worse. He applied salve, remedied as he could, and then, finding that the horse evinced a desire to lie down, he led it out of the stable and up the street.

Around and around the block he led Baron, and in the early morning a policeman found the horse lying on the street and the old peddler by his side with an arm on the animal's neck, and both were dead.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Dogs That Resemble Bears.

It has already been noted by scientists that certain mountain dogs have shapes and assume attitudes resembling those of a bear. Among these dogs the sheep dog of the Pyrenees bears a closer resemblance to the bear than most others. Although he is seldom over twenty inches high, his bones are very massive and his muscles exceptionally developed. His fur is thick, consisting of long, silky hair, either black or brown or gray. His head is large and the nose tapering, the eyes small, but sharp and lustrous and his ears always "attentive." The toes and the base of the feet are elongated and flat. The tail is very short or even entirely missing, and by his manner of climbing the almost mountain slopes he may easily be mistaken for a young bear.

A Thackeray Dedication.

A doctor who achieved literary immortality by his refusal of a fee was John Elfrith, who attended Thackeray during a serious illness in 1858. To him in return Thackeray dedicated "Pendennis."

"Thirteen months ago," he wrote, "when it seemed likely that this story had come to a close, a kind friend brought you to my bedside, whence, in all probability, I never should have risen but for your constant watchfulness and skill. I like to recall your great goodness and kindness (as well as many acts of others, showing quite a surprising friendship and sympathy) at that time, when kindness and friendship were most needed and welcome. And as you would take no other fee but thanks let me record them here on behalf of me and mine."

Divorce in Norway.

It is easier to obtain a divorce in Norway than in any other European country. If a married couple want to part Norwegian law grants a divorce without inquiring into the reason, but as security that the step has been well thought over it provides that a year of separation must intervene between the application and the actual granting of the divorce. The husband and wife have first to apply to a magistrate. He sends them to the conciliation board, and if this body cannot reconcile them they are granted a separation order. At the end of a year the ministry of justice is compelled to make the divorce final if asked to do so by either party. The whole proceedings are very cheap, the cost ranging from about $1.25 to $25.—London Standard.

A Mere Trifle Anyway.

An eminent German scientist who recently visited this country with a number of his colleagues was dining at an American house and telling how much he had enjoyed various phases of his visit.

"How did you like our railroad trains?" his host asked him.

"Ach, they are wonderful," the German gentleman replied, "so swift, so safe—generally—and such luxury in all the furnishings and appointments. All is excellent except one thing—our wives do not like the upper berth."—Harper's Weekly.

OPEN FORUM

A Botch Job.

The subway on East Macdonald avenue, as all citizens as well as visitors to Richmond are familiar with, is an eyesore and a "botch job." It has caused much adverse criticism and defaces one of the prettiest thoroughfares in any of the bay cities. Citizens who live in East Richmond and must use this subterranean and attractive convenience of "modern architecture," can conceive of no reason why the city should not have this dark, dank, dripping and unsanitary place replaced by a surface crossing with gates and safeguards similar to the San Pablo avenue crossings at Golden Gate and Fortieth street.

The centralization of Richmond and the beautification of its main artery should not be retarded by an eyesore at the gate to the city. The city has outgrown its provincial requirements and demands something better, something safer than the present contracted "dip" that is not only a menace to life and limb, but a blot upon the city's most traveled business thoroughfare.

The remedy lies within the power of the people. No corporation, no city officials, no designing politicians nor real estate manipulators should be permitted to lay one straw of obstruction in the way of developing and beautifying Richmond, and especially the front door.

Espee avenue now being put in condition west of the Southern Pacific, will divert travel of Twenty-third street from the viaduct north of Pullman to Macdonald on account of the easy grade crossing and carries my argument into effect that the subway should be filled and a grade crossing established at once.

First Impressions count.

I would recommend the women's civic improvement clubs of Central and East Richmond take up the subway problem. They can solve it pronto.

IS RICHMOND READY FOR ANNEXATION TO OAKLAND?

To the Editor of The Terminal:

Will Richmond soon be annexed to Oakland? Influences seem to point that way.

The patrons of the Examiner are served with the Oakland Examiner. The San Francisco Examiner, it appears, is not obtainable. Let the subscriber to this daily ask for the San Francisco Examiner and observe results.

The Bulletin prints Oakland city hall upon its head. Why? Why not print the proposed city hall for Richmond on its heading for Richmond and subscribers? It cannot be done. Why?

The street electric railway system is without the name of Richmond. It is known as San Francisco Oakland Terminals Railway. Richmond is not in it, and it has the best paying mileage of the system. Then Richmond is a terminal, too. It is the terminal of the Santa Fe railway, the freight terminal of the overland freight on San Francisco bay, the terminus of the coast division of the Santa Fe, known as the Oakland and East Side railway and is the terminal of the proposed northwest route from Marin county to North Richmond at Point San Pablo.

Then there are three terminals of oil pipe lines, and also terminal proposed from Brooks Island of the Southern Pacific company, which also has a freight terminal north west from the Standard Oil company's great plant.

Richmond is the northern terminal of the east bay electric railway and is the terminal of the Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco railway.

Of course, if Richmond should be annexed to Oakland, Macdonald avenue and San Pablo avenue properties would be the most valuable of any Richmond property and Point Richmond would be the back door to the city.

Let the boosters work to make Point Richmond the front door.

Let the tunnel and harbor work progress.

Let the slogan for the boosters be: "RICHMOND IN PRINT—PRINT RICHMOND."

Let the booster clubs work to preserve all the previous advertisements of Richmond, by the correction of any tendency toward being absorbed by any neighboring metropolis. Pull for Richmond. At present Macdonald avenue is the front door.

ONE-EYED OBSERVER.

Head Hunters of the Philippines.

Curiously enough, the head hunting peoples of the Philippines are apparently limited to northern Luzon. None of the warlike hill tribes inhabiting other parts of the archipelago are known to take the heads of their victims. The explanation of their head hunting customs which is given by the Negritos of northeastern Luzon is very simple. They believe that each family must take at least one head a year or suffer misfortune in the form of sickness, wounds, starvation or death. Their victims are always beheaded with talos. Heads are buried in the ground under the "houses" of the men who take them. Plates or ollas are placed over the spots where the heads are buried and possibly contain offerings to evil spirits. The "houses" under which heads are buried are then abandoned and their supposed fortunate owners look forward to a period free from death sickness or injury and to success in their hunting and fishing.—National Geographic Magazine.

Happy Days.

However varied the courses of our life, whatever the phase of pleasure and ambition through which it has swept along, still, when in memory we would revive the times that were comparatively the happiest, these times will be found to have been the earliest.—Rulver Lighton.
